SUBJECT: EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE INCOME LEVEL FOR FISCAL YEAR 1996-97

The purpose of this letter is to provide counties with information regarding the new income level to be used for Emergency Assistance (EA) eligibility determination purposes during State Fiscal Year 1996-97.

One of the elements of EA eligibility is the determination of the family's total income. Under EA, the family's income can be no greater than two hundred percent of the California median family income. The allowable income level for eligibility purposes is calculated on a fiscal year basis. For the period beginning July 1, 1996, through June 30, 1997, the total family income of an EA applicant cannot exceed $96,800. This income level must be used in the eligibility determination of an EA application.

The California Department of Social Services appreciates the counties' cooperation in this matter. Should you have any comments or questions regarding this material or any further questions concerning the EA Program, please contact EA Program staff at (916) 322-5946.

Sincerely,

MARJORIE KELLY
Deputy Director
Children and Family Services Division
